ONLINE WEBINAR

THE IMPORTANCE OF PLAY: A Developmental and Psychological Perspective

Date: Monday, October 11th, 2021 Time: 12pm - 1pm

This is a 45-min webinar followed by 15-mins for Q&A and discussion.

Suitable for parents of toddlers, young children and nursery staff.

ABOUT THIS WEBINAR:

Join us in exploring the importance of play in a child's life. In a world where life moves quickly and technology is at the forefront, many say that play has become scarce in our children's lives. In this webinar, we will consider why play matters from a psychological and developmental perspective, and the key benefits it provides. We will also explore the different types and developmental stages of play, and how we can make sure our children are getting enough; a play prescription!

ATTENDEES WILL:

- Gain an understanding of what play is, and why it is so important for a child's development
- Learn the types and developmental stages of play
- Understand what barriers get in the way of play, and how we can promote it in our children's lives.
