

ONLINE SUPPORT GROUP

2026: TERM 2 & 3 SCHOOL INCLUSION STAFF MONTHLY SUPPORT GROUP

This is a dedicated free support group designed for school inclusion staff - Special Education Needs (SEN) teachers and Learning Support Assistants working in UAE schools. This open group meets online once a month, and is a supportive space facilitated by an experienced clinical psychologist.

Participants can bring any topics or issues related to their practice as part of the SEN team.
Topic examples: Topics related to managing student behaviors and needs, collaborating with parents, teachers and colleagues, as well as issues including, but not limited to, navigating ethical dilemmas and addressing caregiver burnout.

BENEFITS IN JOINING THIS SUPPORT GROUP

- A safe and supportive environment where professional and practice issues may be explored.
- The opportunity to share challenging cases and receive professional input from the supervisor, as well as their peers.
- A chance to learn practical tools and techniques to further support students with additional needs in school in areas of:
 - Behavior management
 - Executive functions
 - Emotional regulation
 - Sensory integration
- The space to reflect on their self-care practices as a means of preventing burnout, while learning additional ways to maintain a healthy work/life balance during the busier school months.
- The guidance on how to give clear, concise and constructive feedback to parents and classroom teachers.
- The support to challenge all practices that are considered unethical or incompetent using the profession's best practice, policies and procedures of the organization they work for.
- The opportunity to consider other factors that may impact on the inclusion teacher's work including working relationships with colleagues or personal circumstances within the scope of personal and professional boundaries.
- Guidance in how to challenge any unhelpful assumptions and attitudes they carry which may influence practice.
